

The BMBF funded project WoodCluster aims for the elaboration of solutions for a sustainable wood supply, that contributes to narrow the wood supply gap in Eastern Africa (Partner countries: Ethiopia, Tanzania, Uganda). The project WoodCluster offers the chance to conduct research for final MSc and BSc theses in the period from 2017 – 2020.

OFFER FOR STUDENTS

- Final thesis topics and incorporation in a projekt
- Travel and stay funds through the project or Promos
- Support through African partner universities
- Experiences in the international context and intercultural competences
- Network with others students

REQUIREMENTS FOR STUDENTS

- Motivation letter with idea of a topic
- Good or very good study performance
- Motivation and preparedness to work under local conditions in Africa
- Application of participatory Methods
- Final thesis in English language
- Provision of the final research within the project

CONTACT

Maxi Domke, Project Coordinator „WoodCluster“, Institute for International Forestry and forest products

 Cotta Bau, Room 0.05,  035203-3831-832

 woodcluster@mailbox.tu-dresden.de,  <http://www.forst.tu-dresden.de/Inter>