

BREAKING NEWS

MAJOR FISH KILL
CAUSES TURMOIL
AMONGST RESIDENTS

This morning a fish kill of massive scale was reported at Riot River. Mokala residents noticed what is estimated to be up to 300 dead animals at river bank and are now horrified what this means for water quality. Many rely on the river's water for every day life and demand for authorities to take immediate action.

NEWS

MOKALA HOSPITAL IN BATTLE WITH KILLER GERMS

Medical experts at the community hospital struggle with more and more patients that do not respond well to available treatment. The situation is particularly critical for the elderly, patients that show a weak immune response suffer severely from effects of the infection.

the good news

WATER PIPELINES
BRING COMMUNITIES TOGETHER

After heated protests and years of planning, Katma was integrated into Mokala water infrastructure two months ago. The city council approved this decision and researchers claim the system is running without problems. Wastewater from industries is now transferred to Mokala sewage treatment plant.

the good news

COMMUNITIES CELEBRATE RAINFALL AFTER FOUR WEEK
DROUGHT

Residents and farmers alike came together to celebrate the first substantial rainfall after several weeks of water scarcity. With music and food they gave way to the big relieve while droughts in the region have been predicted to only become more frequent.

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

BREAKING NEWS

---

ANIMAL RIGHTS
ACTIVISTS REVEAL
SHOCKING FOOTAGE AT KAREHA FARMS

Undercover activists working at livestock farms in Kareha made videos public that proof catastrophic conditions clearly violating a great number of laws. Meanwhile farmers collectively raise their voice about market prices and competition from imported products demanding more support of local businesses.

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

ARTICLE | Scenario 1

