The title page of the dissertation must be formatted in accordance with the current recommendation of SLUB. The page immediately following the title page must include, at a minimum, the title of the dissertation and the location and date of the defense. All copies must also include the declaration in accordance with Appendix 5 of the Doctoral Regulations dated February 2, 2026 (or Appendix 2 of the Doctoral Regulations dated 22.08.2014) confirming that the dissertation is consistent with the version submitted at the start of the doctoral proceedings. Any requirements imposed by the Doctoral Committee must be taken into account.

More detailed information can be found in the doctoral regulations:

SLUB Recommendations on Formatting

- The following information is required on the title page (front or back) of dissertations: the date of the defense and the names of your reviewers.
- For electronic publications, it is recommended that you omit personal information such as your date and place of birth.
- Information required on the title page (front or back) of habilitation theses: the date of the trial lecture or the completion of the habilitation process.
- A curriculum vitae may be included, but is not required.
- When submitting the final version for publication, please refrain from including signatures (e.g., under the declaration of originality).
- Please note that no subsequent changes are permitted once files have been published.

Please also note the different guidelines regarding the formatting of the printed version:

- Paper sizes ranging from DIN A5 to DIN A4, as well as intermediate sizes, are permitted.
- Double-sided printing is allowed.
- You may omit personal information. Please consult with the Doctoral Office regarding this matter.
- The printed copies must be bound in a durable manner. The minimum requirement for the binding is a softcover (paperback). Ring bindings are not accepted.
