Junior Manager Network Planning Italy (m/f/d)

FlixBus – A place to enjoy work and have an impact

We are a global mobility provider with headquarters in Europe and the United States. Since 2013, we have changed the way millions of people have traveled, offering new alternatives for convenient, affordable and eco-friendly travel. Thanks to a unique business model and innovative technology, we have quickly established one of the largest long-distance mobility networks in the world – and our journey has just begun.

To support our ambitious growth, we are now looking for a (Junior) Manager Network Planning Italy (m/f/d) in Berlin starting as soon as possible.

Your Tasks – Paint the world green

You will work as a (Junior) Manager Network Planning Italy (m/f/d) in a self-organized, cross-functional team. The mission of the team is to optimize the schedules, cycles and shift schedules of our lines to deliver a great product to our customer, always basing your decisions on quantitative analyses.

As part of your daily work, you work closely with your fellow team members, for example pricing & yield managers.

- You plan our FlixBus bus lines in collaboration with our business partners, pricing & yield managers, and our experienced Berlin team to develop and optimize our national network in France and/or Italy
- You coordinate the interactions on your allocated line portfolio with the other teams to ensure smooth processes (authorizations, line starts, operational requests)
- You base your decisions on quantitative analyses and derive conclusions and observations from the variety of sets of data to make informed decisions
- You present ideas as well as figures in informative and relevant form to update your team members
- You communicate with our business partners to handle our operative demands

Your Profile – Ready to hop on board

- You have a good academic degree in transportation management, geography, spatial planning, transportation engineering, economics, or related field of study
- You are a skilled user (m/f/d) of the MS-Office programs
- Knowledge of the Italy territories and the Italy transport markets is a plus
- Strong analysis and modelling abilities to solve complex problems in a rational way
- You are organized and autonomous
- You have a team oriented working style
- You are a travel enthusiast with the special focus on customer needs
- You are enthusiastic, ready for action and you show personal initiative
- Fluent in English, every other language (especially Italian) is a plus
