

Key Facts

- Degree: Bachelor of Science
- Duration: Full time (6 semester)
Part time (12 semester)
- Admission: A-levels or equivalent,
NC-procedure, Evaluation of suitability for English and French language
(SR II)

Career Prospects

A Bachelor degree in Business and Economics Education allows you to apply for a four semester continuing Master program in Business and Economics Education.

Also it opens up attractive career possibilities in ...

- commercial education and further training
- educational counseling
- adult education and
- business/administrative company departments (e. g. personnel division)

Direction II additionally allows you to realize a clerkship and therewith teach at a vocational school, after finishing a corresponding Master program.

Contact

Contact person

TU Dresden
Faculty of Business and Economics
Prof. Dr. Bärbel Fürstenau
Tel.: +49 351 463 32959
Fax.: +49 351 463 37194
E-Mail: baerbel.fuerstenau@tu-dresden.de

Address

Georg Schumann Building
Münchner Platz 2-3
01187 Dresden

BACHELOR

Business and Economics Education

Imprint

Editor:
Faculty of Business and Economics
Dean's Office

Date: January 2017

Program Syllabus

- The Bachelor program consists of modules in a broad compulsory part, a mandatory part with various specialization possibilities, and the Bachelor thesis. The workload comprises 180 credit points. Every semester 30 credit points are awarded.
- You may choose between two study directions I und II. Study direction I is business-oriented, while direction II combines topics in business and economics with an additionally chosen qualification.
- The mandatory core modules teach fundamentals in Business Management, Economics, Business Informatics, Law, Mathematics, and Statistics. Furthermore, you have to realize practical studies in a school and a practical school training. When choosing Direction II, you additionally take mandatory courses in your chosen qualification option.
- The elective modules allow you to choose modules of interest in the areas of: Business Education, Business Management, Economics, and an additional field.
- The program is completed in the 6th semester with a Bachelor thesis.

Mandatory Modules (Business/Economics)

- Business Administration
- Economics
- Business Informatics
- Mathematics*
- Statistics
- Law

Mandatory Modules (Education)

- Educational Psychology
- Introduction in Business Didactics
- Introduction in Commercial Education
- Practical Studies in School
- Practical School Training

Mandatory Modules in Qualifications with general educational value (study direction II only)

Elective Modules in Business and Economics (starting 4. semester)

- Business Administration
- Economics
- Interdisciplinary additional fields

Bachelor thesis (6. semester)

* entfällt bei Mathematik in der Studienrichtung II

Elective Modules

Business Administration

Accounting and Finance
Learning and Human Resources Management
Management und Marketing
Operations and Logistics Management
Environmental Management and Energy
Economics
Transport Economics

Economics

Economic Policy and Political Economy
Financial Economics and Global Markets

Interdisciplinary courses

Foreign Languages
Quantitative Methods
Business Informatics

Qualification options

German language
English language
Ethics / Philosophy
Evangelische Religion
French language
History
Informatics
Catholic religion
Mathematics