

Documents to bring to Germany - Checklist

- ☐ Passport
- ☐ Entry visa, if applicable (also for family members)
- ☐ Letter of invitation / Letter of acceptance/employment or guest researcher contract with the host institution or funding certificate
- ☐ For determining the appropriate salary level: previous employment contracts or letters of reference outlining job descriptions from all former academic employer(s)
- ☐ For the application for a residence permit of accompanying children: birth certificates either legalized by the German consulate in your home country/country of residence or with an apostille (for further information: http://tu-dresden.de/internationales/welcomecenter/service/formaliaeten_gastwissenschaftler/legalization_of_documents).
- ☐ For the application for a residence permit of accompanying spouse: marriage certificate either legalized by the German consulate in your home country/country of residence or with an apostille (for further information: http://tu-dresden.de/internationales/welcomecenter/service/formaliaeten_gastwissenschaftler/legalization_of_documents).
- ☐ For the application for certain types of residence permit and/or the recognition of your degree from a university abroad: original(s) of your MA degree and/or doctoral degree and a copy of your a-level certificate / university entry level certificate
- ☐ If you intend to drive a car in Germany: international driving licence or foreign national driving licence

The TU Dresden Welcome Center is happy to provide more information via web or appointment.

E-mail: welcome.center@tu-dresden.de // Web: www.welcomecenter.tu-dresden.de //

Blog: www.ddcwelcome.de