Dresden University of Technology

POSTDOC CENTER

MENTORING PROGRAM ACADEMIA
MENTORING AGREEMENT between

name (mentee)

and

name (mentor)

1. Organisation of the mentoring relationship

The mentoring relationship will take place in the period from to Mentee and mentor commit themselves to regular meetings.

meeting location: time interval:

If applicable, there will be a regular exchange via

☐ online conference ☐ phone ☐ e-mail

in a time interval of approximately

2. Content and topics of the mentoring relationship

Mentee and mentor plan to discuss the following topics:

3. Expectations and goals of the cooperation

Expectations of the mentee:

Expectations of the mentor:

The goals for the mentoring relationship are as follows:

Declaration of consent

Mentee and mentor enter into the mentoring relationship voluntarily. There is no direct relationship of dependence between the two, i.e. no direct or indirect working relationship and no supervisory relationship (e.g. habilitation). Mentee and mentor can terminate the mentoring relationship anytime in consultation with the program coordinator.

The agreed meetings and topics are considered binding. In case of impediment, appointments have to be cancelled in due time. The topics can be changed after consultation. The mentee agrees to proactively organize the meetings and to invite the mentor.

The conversations take place in a protected setting and are treated as strictly confidential by the mentor and mentee. The content of the discussions can only be discussed with third parties if an explicit joint agreement has been reached. The obligation to confidentiality shall remains in force even after the end of the mentoring relationship.

place	date	place	date

signature (mentee)	signature (mentor)