

Project ROSE – Third Workshop: The Influence of Religious Orders on Societies – A Comparison between the Holy Roman Empire and the Croatian Historical Lands

(Dresden, 15 and 16 June 2026)

Monday, 15 June

Section I: Religious and the Lay World – Networks, Mobility and Social Interaction

9:30 Welcome

9:45–10:30 Mirko Breitenstein/ Sandra Groß/ Katrin Rösler (Dresden): Helfta Monastery. Its History, Its Networks, Its Afterlife

10:30–11:00 Nathalie Schmidt (Dresden): The Alms Journey of the Order of Saint Anthony

11:00–11:30 Marko Jerković (Zagreb): Adventures on the Road: Dominican Mobility and Social Interaction

Break / Lunch

Section II: The Influence of Monasteries on their Local Environment

14:00–14:45 Daniela Bianca Hoffmann (Dresden): The Influence of Charterhouses on their Urban Environment – The Example of Trier, a Foundation by Baldwin of Luxembourg (14th c.)

14:45–15:15 Daniel Patafta (Zagreb): The Franciscan Influence on Urbanization of Medieval Croatia

15:15–15:45 Mariela Markić (Zagreb): The Impact of Pauline Monasteries on the Local Population in Croatia

Break

Section III: The Cultural Impact of Monasteries

16:15–16:45 Lucija Krešić Nacevski (Zagreb): Scripts in Medieval Benedictine Monasteries in Dalmatia

16:45–17:15 Petar Bilobrk (Zagreb): The Influence of Jesuit Education on Croatian Society

Dinner

Tuesday, 16 June

Section III: The Cultural Impact of Monasteries (Continuation)

9:30–10:00 Marion Feise (Dresden): Monks in the Popular Imagination – The Legend of the “Mountain Monk” in the Harz Region

10:00–10:30 Michael Hänchen (Dresden): Beer, Brothers and Miracles. On the Social Influence of Religious Communities on European Beer Culture

10:30–11:00 Final discussion