
1. Purpose and responsible authority
The purpose of data collection is to ensure that the LL.M. programme is carried out properly. For this purpose, it is necessary to request data from the participants that uniquely identify them and enable them to be contacted.

The following body is responsible for the collection and further processing of personal data:

Herr Prof. Dr. Horst-Peter Götting, LL.M.
TU Dresden
Juristische Fakultät
IGEWeM
Bergstr. 53
01062 Dresden
Tel.: +49 351 463-37393 / 37308
Fax: +49 351 463-37226
E-Mail: i.gewem@tu-dresden.de

2. Data processing
The data ist collected, processed and stored in order to identify the persons participating in the course, to communicate with them, to check the prerequisites for participation, to check any fees that may be incurred in accordance with § 38 SächsHG in conjunction with § 2 Para. 1 SächsH GebVO, to prepare attestations, certificates and the personal certificate as well as for subsequent verification.

3. Voluntary nature and revocation pursuant to Art. 7 DSGVO
Participation in the course of studies and the related indication of personal data is voluntary. Non-participation does not result in any disadvantages. Consent to the collection, storage and other processing of personal data can be revoked at any time in accordance with Art. 7 DSGVO with the result that the personal data is deleted immediately and the person concerned is no longer listed as a participant in the course. A written notification (letter, e-mail or fax) to the Institute for Intellectual Property, Competition and Media Law (IGEWeM) is sufficient to exercise the right of revocation.

4. Data transmission
The name, date of birth and place of birth of a successful graduate will be sent to the Rectorate of the TU Dresden together with the events attended and the examinations performed in order to prepare the certificate. Unless otherwise stipulated by law or unless the course participant has expressly consented in individual cases, personal data will not be passed on to third parties.

5. Duration of data storage
All personal data collected will be stored for a period of 15 years from the end of the semester in which the last examination performance was performed, as proof of the completion of the study and of individual academic achievements. This also includes written work, such as exams. The grade lists of the individual years, which show the names and individual examination performances of the students, are stored for 15 years from the end of the semester in which the last examination performance was performed. The personal data can be deleted at any time upon request of the course graduate concerned.
6. Publication
   A publication of personal data does not take place.

7. Right of access (Art. 15 DSGVO)
   The persons participating in the programme have the right at any time to request information on the data processed concerning them and the possible recipients of the data to whom they have been communicated. They are entitled to a reply within one month of receipt of the request for information.

8. Right to rectification, cancellation and limitation (Art. 16 - 18 DSGVO)
   The course participants may at any time request the IGEWeM to correct, delete or block individual personal data.

9. Right to data transferability (Art. 20 DSGVO)
   The course participants may request that the IGEWeM transmit to them their personal data which they have provided to the IGEWeM in a structured, common and machine-readable format. Alternatively, they can request the direct transfer of the personal data provided by them to another person in charge as far as this is possible.

10. Right of objection (Art. 21 DSGVO)
    If the IGEWeM processes personal data of course participants on the basis of a legitimate interest, they have the right to object to the processing. For this purpose, a text message addressed to the IGEWeM is sufficient.

11. Data protection officer and supervisory authority for data protection
    Affected persons can contact the data protection officer of the TU Dresden (Datenschutzbeauftragten der TU Dresden) at any time as well as the responsible supervisory authority for data protection (Aufsichtsbehörde für den Datenschutz) in the event of a complaint pursuant to Art. 77 DSGVO.
