

30.10.2025 (Thursday)

Matrons and Monuments: Gendered Dimensions of Architectural Patronage in Ancient Rome

The workshop focuses on elite women as matrons of monuments in ancient Rome. By connecting lecture and group discussions the seminar will offer valuable insights into the strategies of elite women to create or appropriate spaces in the topographical and political landscape of ancient Rome. We will explore how women used architectural means to craft a public persona for themselves and the ways these strategies were connected with greater political programs in the Roman Empire.

Who can participate? Everyone who is interested in this topic!

Place and Time: 08:00-15:00, BZW / A538, Zellescher Weg 17

Requirements for the workshop: Reading of the provided texts. They are available via OPAL. Scan the QR code at the end to get to the course or search for the course „Workshop Matrons and Monuments“ in OPAL.

The language of the workshop: English

How to sign up for the workshop? please write a short eMail to:

katrin.boerner@tu-dresden.de

We are looking forward to welcome you at the workshop !