

The Centro de Estudios Europa Hispánica (CEEH) in Madrid and the Technische Universität Dresden invite applications for a

Doctorate Scholarship (Carl Justi-Stipendium zur Kunstgeschichte Spaniens/Carl Justi Scholarship for the Study of the History of Spanish Art)

The scholarship will start on October 1st, 2022 and will be undertaken at the Institut für Kunst- und Musikwissenschaft (Department of Art History and Musicology) of the Technische Universität Dresden. The scholarship is endowed with € 20.000,- annually for a duration of 36 months (extendable to 4 years on request). The doctoral thesis can be written in German or in English.

Topics:

The doctoral project should be located in the area of Spanish art and architecture including its reception by German artists, art historians, collectors, and critics. Proposals relating to the art history between the Middle Ages and the first two decades of the 20th century are particularly welcome.

Requirements:

The prerequisite for application is a completed university degree in art history. In addition, the admission requirements for a doctorate according to the doctoral regulations of the Philosophische Fakultät (Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Science) of the Technische Universität Dresden must be fulfilled:
