

Dear LL.M.-IP student,

Your mandatory stay at the University of Exeter as part of the Master's program "International Studies in Intellectual Property Law" is about to begin and you have probably already made most of the preparations for the trip and your accommodation on site. Herewith we would like to give you some information about the crediting of your studies at the University of Exeter for your overall grade.

With the LL.M. "International Studies in Intellectual Property Law" you have chosen a one-year master's program with 60 ECTS. Your study abroad accounts for 25 ECTS of this total.

Please note that the University of Exeter's credit system differs from the continental European system. For the courses at the University of Exeter, either 30 credits or 15 credits are usually granted locally. In total, you should choose courses with a workload of 60 credits during your study stay at the University of Exeter, which will count towards your Master's degree with 25 ECTS. The grade achieved at the University of Exeter counts for 25% of the master's grade.
