

Turun yliopisto
University of Turku

Euro Visions: New Openings on the Idea of Europe

We are pleased to announce the following event, to be held in the framework of the Euro Visions series of expert seminars and lectures dealing with the notion of Europe. During the seminars which open to the public, guest lecturers will present the state of research, provocative openings and current debates related to various aspects of Europe and its relations to the wider world.

How to Deal with Prejudices and Stereotypes in Border Regions?

- Prejudices and Stereotypes in Neighbourhood Relations
- Conflict and Co-operation in Border Regions and the Example of Polish Borders

A seminar with

Professor Gerhard Besier

Chair in European Studies, Technische Universität Dresden, Germany

and

Assistant Professor Katarzyna Stoklosa

Department of Border Region Studies, University of Southern Denmark

Tuesday, 24 January, from 14 to 16

Publicum 5 lecture hall, Publicum building, University of Turku

Everyone interested is welcome to participate and no preregistration is needed.
The session will be conducted in English.

For the location, please see building T50 on the UTU campus map:
<http://www.utu.fi/kartta/indexen.html>. The street address is Assistentinkatu 7.

Euro Visions is organised in collaboration between two Master's programmes and a non-degree teaching programme at the University of Turku:

- Master's Degree Programme in Baltic Sea Region Studies
- European Heritage, Digital Media and the Information Society, a European Master's Programme
- History and Politics of European Integration non-degree programme