

Only the german version of the module description as part of the study regulations is legally binding.

Module name	Academic language skills C1 - Spanish
Module number	INF-25-LN-C1-SP
Responsible lecturer	Ute Meyer ute.meyer@tu-dresden.de
Qualification objectives	Students have the ability to communicate independently in Spanish in written and oral form at level C1 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages . Students can understand complex specialist texts presented orally, express themselves clearly and fluently in detail using complex linguistic structures and an extensive general and specialist vocabulary on topics in their subject area, follow and participate in complex interaction in discussions, even on abstract and complex topics, and use language flexibly and effectively, including for the expression of inauthenticity such as irony, allusions and metaphors. Students have intercultural competence.
Content	The content of the module in Spanish is the expansion of academic language skills, listening strategies, reception and production of specialist and academic texts as well as the development of presentations on with discussion.
Teaching and learning methods	The module comprises language courses of 4 SWS and self-study.
Prerequisites for participation	Spanish language skills at level B2 of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages are required.
Applicability	The module is a compulsory elective module of the General Qualification in the Diploma degree program in Computer Science in the foundation course, which must be selected in accordance with the annex age 1 to the examination regulations. In the Bachelor's degree course in Computer Science, the module is a compulsory elective module of the General Qualification on, which must be selected in accordance with the annex to the examination regulations. In the Bachelor's degree program in Applied Computer Science, the module is a compulsory elective module of the General Qualification, which must be selected in accordance with the appendix to the examination regulations. In the Master's degree program ang Computer Science, the module is a compulsory elective module of the General Qualification, which must be selected in accordance with Annex 1 to the Examination Regulations . The module cannot be selected in the Master's degree program in Computer Science if this module or a module with essentially the same content from a degree program in which the admission requirements according to Section 3 of the study regulations have already been met has already been completed. The module dul creates the prerequisites for the modules listed under prerequisites for participation.

Requirements for earning credit points	The credit points are earned if the module examination is passed. The module examination consists of a language examination lasting 100 minutes.
Credit points and grades	5 credit points can be earned through the module. The module grade corresponds to the grade of the examination.
Module frequency	The module is offered every semester.
Workload	The total workload is 150 hours.
Module duration	The module comprises one semester.