

Only the german version of the module description as part of the study regulations is legally binding.

Module name	Business Administration Specialization - Accounting
Module number	INF-25-Ma-NSP-BWL-RW
Responsible lecturer	Dean of Studies for Business and Economics studiendekan.ww@mailbox.tu-dresden.de
Qualification objectives	Students have basic knowledge of internal and external accounting. They know how to design cost and performance accounting in companies in a way that is appropriate to the problem, understand how individual business transactions are mapped in financial accounting and know the relationships between the balance sheet and the income statement.
Content	The module covers corporate financial accounting, cost and activity accounting in companies and cost type, cost center and cost unit accounting methods.
Teaching and learning methods	The module comprises lectures of 3 SWS, exercises of 3 SWS and self-study. The language of instruction for the lectures and exercises is German.
Prerequisites for participation	In the Diploma degree program in Computer Science, the competencies to be acquired in the module INF-25-Ma-NVE-BWL Business Administration Specialization n are a prerequisite.
Applicability	The module is a compulsory module of the non-informatics supplement Business Administration in the Diploma degree course in Computer Science in the main study program dul. The module creates the prerequisites for the modules that name it as a prerequisite zungen für die Teilnahme.
Requirements for earning credit points	The credit points are earned if the module examination g is passed. The module examination consists of a written examination lasting 120 minutes. The examination language is German.
Credit points and grades	6 credit points can be earned through the module en. The module grade corresponds to the grade of the examination.
Module frequency	The module is offered every winter semester.
Workload	The total workload is 180 hours den.
Module duration	The module comprises one semester er.