

Call for Papers

EUTOPIA Multilingualism & Diversity Student Conference

Multilingualism in the Modern Era: Global Connections and Identity

(8 July 2026, tentative times 9:00-17:00 BST, online)

Multilingualism has always played a crucial role in shaping identities, and connecting people from various cultures and communities. As modern society continues its rapid globalisation, multilingualism has also evolved into a tool for advancement, and for navigating our highly interconnected and intercultural world. The aim of this conference is to provide a platform for those with a keen interest in Multilingualism in our current society, whilst making student-led research more accessible.

We invite students to submit research related but not limited to the following topics:

- Multilingualism and Technology (e.g. use of technology in multilingual study, technology as a means for multilingualism and connections).
- Multilingualism and Global Mobility (e.g. work, migration).
- Language and Identity (e.g. how language shapes the culture of the community, the impact of global languages like English, French, or Mandarin).
- Multilingualism in Everyday Life (e.g. education, everyday lifestyles, multicultural communities, bilingual/multilingual upbringings, intercultural interactions).

Why participate?

- Connect with fellow students, receive guidance from academic staff, and benefit from interdisciplinary perspectives on multilingualism.
- Expand your academic network and make global connections through the EUTOPIA Alliance (16 universities).
- Develop your communication and public speaking skills, as well as strengthen your intercultural competence.
- Get an official certificate from EUTOPIA upon participation.

Submission guidelines:

Please fill THIS FORM by 26 April 2026.

Participants will be required to present their research for 10-15 minutes with presentation slides.

As this is a multilingual conference, please note that you will be free to use your preferred language for your presentation but at least one component (oral presentation or slides) should be in English (e.g. you can present in Spanish with slides in English or vice-versa).

Any enquiries can be addressed to Eutopiamultilingualismconference@warwick.ac.uk.