Grants for the funding of young scientists during the completion and wrap-up phase of the doctorate in Physical Chemistry

Completion and wrap-up grants aim at supporting doctoral candidates for up to three months during the final and/or wrap-up phase of their doctorate. Applicants can apply for grants up to three months before submission of the thesis and until up to two months after the thesis defense. Eligible are doctoral candidates in the final and/or wrap-up phase of their PhD, whose current financial support in form of scholarships, work contracts and/or third party funding has expired.

[1] Duration of funding:

The scholarship is awarded for a maximum period of three months depending on the available budget.

[2] Extent of funding:

The monthly grant consists of 1500 € and a monthly non-personnel cost subsidy (for e.g. material/ travel expenses of 103€). If applicable, a monthly family allowance of 400€ for the first and 100€ for each additional child can be paid.

[3] Eligibility

Doctoral candidates of TU Dresden in the final phase of their PhD, whose current financial support in form of scholarships, work contracts or third party funding expired.

[4] Application Documents

Checklist for a complete application:

- Application letter
- CV
- list of publications, previous teaching activities and description of the scientific career
- Copy of the latest university degree

[5] Selection Procedure

The selection process takes place by the Chair of Physical Chemistry on the basis of the application handed in. The scholarships are performance-based grants and are awarded in a competitive selection process.

The selection criteria are:

- Qualification of the applicant (academic performance, publications, prizes, awards)
- Quality of the scientific project
- Consideration of life circumstances (social criteria)
- Complete application documents

A fundamental legal right to claim funding within this program does not exist.
