Every parent's voice matters!

Families come in all shapes and sizes – share your experience in our online study!

What is the study about?

We are interested in how parents from a wide range of family backgrounds experience stress and challenges during pregnancy, childbirth, and early parenthood, and what helps them cope.

Who can participate?

Anyone who is currently expecting a child or has become a parent within the past 12 months is welcome to participate — whether you are a biological parent, part of a blended, rainbow, or single-parent family, or any other family structure. Feel free to take part together — each person should complete the survey individually.

Zeitlicher Umfang

Die Teilnahme dauert etwa 25 bis 30 Minuten.
