TUD Service Center Research Data and ZPID DataWiz

— Denise Dörfel

The newly developed 'Research Data Management Guidance' of the Faculty of Psychology ('Handreichung Forschungsdatenmanagement') describes best practices, resources, tools and support structures for research data management and open science. To put this into practice, Denise shortly outlines the services of the Service Center Research Data (Kontaktstelle Forschungsdaten) of TU Dresden and present a promising tool of Leibniz Psychology (ZPID) – the DataWiz. You can download a recording of the talk here.

Miscellaneous

- Philippe Jawinski will hold a talk titled "Increasing reproducibility through shareable software environments and synthetic datasets" on October 12.
- We will have an exchange on research data management and Open Science with Lennart Wittkuhn
