Exchange at ZJU

Exchange Programs

Undergraduate Program

- Students are affiliated to one of undergraduate faculties or schools and take undergraduate-level courses with Zhejiang University students.
- Students admitted in this program with advanced level of Chinese language (e.g. HSK 5 or above) could also take courses on Chinese language and courses on Survey of China (both courses include 48 teaching hours per semester).

Postgraduate Program

- Students are affiliated to one of graduate schools and take graduate-level courses with Zhejiang University students.
- Students admitted in this program could also take courses on Chinese language (32 teaching hours per semester) and courses on Survey of China (48 teaching hours per semester).

Chinese Language Program

- ZJU offers intensive courses on Chinese language and culture at different levels for international students. Students are to be placed in classes that suit them the best by taking a class placement test. The intensive Chinese language and culture program includes courses of reading, listening, practical conversation and writing. Students could take no more than 2 elective courses on Chinese society and culture per semester.
- This is a non-credit program. However, a transcript will be provided to allow the home institution to evaluate based on their own policies.
