2. Data Processing

Your data is stored in the datastore of the form in WebCMS and recorded by those responsible in a table for internal documentation. In addition, your data will be used to contact you as part of the scholarship program. To create the donation receipt, your personal data will be forwarded to the Gesellschaft von Freunden und Förderern der TU Dresden e.V. and will be included in the donation receipt and bookkeeping. Only with the explicit consent in individual cases, your data will be forwarded to your scholarship holder, used for the invitation to the scholarship celebration or naming on the website.

3. Voluntariness and Revocation

The creation of the donation certificate and the participation in the scholarship program as well as the related disclosure of personal data are voluntary. A non-participation has no consequences. You can refuse your consent and revoke it in the future. For a withdrawal, please contact o.g. Responsible for the data collection. In case of withdrawal, neither a donation nor participation in the scholarship program is possible and your data will be deleted immediately. If the revocation takes place after the donation has been submitted, your data will be deleted, provided that there are no legal reasons.

4. Data Transmission

Unless otherwise provided by law or you have expressly consented to in individual cases, there is no transfer of personal data to third parties, except the Gesellschaft von Freunden und Förderern der TU Dresden e.V., which receives your data for the preparation of the donation receipt. The storage and a possible transfer to third parties due to a legal obligation on your part remain unaffected.

5. Storage Period

Unless revoked, your data will be kept for internal evaluation and statistical purposes upon the donation has been submitted.

6. Publication

Insofar as you have not expressly consented in individual cases, no publication of your personal data takes place.

7. Information Right

8. Data Protection Officer and Data Protection Supervisory Authority

I am aware that I can contact the data protection officer of the TU Dresden¹ and the responsible supervisory authority² for data protection at any time.
