Both the main choir and the chamber ensemble will perform pieces from the upcoming concerts "More than Words" and "4-5-6-7."
5:15 pm - 6:30 pm		UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA Concert Marking the return of the University Orchestra's chamber music concerts, the halls of the Görges-Bau building will be filled with music. What exactly they will play is yet to be announced - after all, students tend to take their time with these things!
5:30 PM	The Office for Academic Heritage invites visitors on an interactive walking tour from the Görges-Bau building to the Biology building. Join us on a journey through time from the 19th century to today and discover the campus from a completely new perspective.
3:30 pm + 5:00 pm	SLUB	SAXON STATE AND UNIVERSITY LIBRARY DRESDEN (SLUB) Guided tour of the Blühende Bücher ("Blooming Books") exhibition in the SLUB's treasure room The SLUB has a considerable inventory of handwritten and printed, illustrated books of plants dating from the medieval period to the modern era. 4:00 pm - 4:45 pm	SLUB Klemperer Hall	CHILDREN'S DANCE ENSEMBLES AT TU DRESDEN Dance workshop for children Whoever wants to shake their tail feathers to the beat of the music and isn't afraid of a little challenge, sweat and stretching has come to the right place. Children aged 7 - 11 are welcome to take part in the dance workshop hosted by the children's dance studio to test out what they already know about modern jazz dancing.
7:30 pm - 8:30 pm		TU DRESDEN'S FOLKLORE DANCE ENSEMBLE "THEA MAASS" German folk dancing workshop Hip-hop is so yesterday - today, we're dancing the polka! Folk dance may sound outdated and sedate to many, but the "Thea Maass" folk dance ensemble is ready to convince you otherwise! The group brings a discerning but lively energy to this style of dance. The workshop will focus on convivial dances with a few basic steps, such as the galop, the polka and the "Rheinländer". Anyone with the urge to dance who has dancing or tennis shoes is welcome to take part, even if you don't have a partner.
6:00 pm	Between BIO Biology building and SLUB Saxon State and University Library Dresden open-air stage	Greeting and opening speech
6:10 pm - 7:00 pm		"THEA MAASS" and CHILDREN'S DANCE STUDIO Dance performance TU Dresden's folklore dance ensemble Thea Maass and the children's dance studio at TU Dresden will present a medley of extracts from their multi-faceted repertoires. The genres on show range from hip-hop and modern to theatrical dance and choreographed German folk.
7:30 pm - 9:30 pm		BIG BAND THERAPY Concert Big Band Therapy is a motley amateur big band based at the Carl Gustav Carus medical campus. Bound by their joy of making music, the band cuts its way through the jungle of big band tunes together with its conductor Joachim Hesse. From jazz classics to Latin rock to billboard hits, the band doesn't shy away from anything. After a long break, the musicians are thrilled to finally take the stage and play together again.
9:45 pm - 12:00 am		CAMPUSRADIO DRESDEN Live music from a young, talented band The Campusradio Dresden will organize the entertainment on both stages of the Campus Culture Festival. On this stage you can party to the sound of the rock music band Feale.
6:00 pm	WEB Stage at Weberplatz inner courtyard	Greeting and opening speech
6:10 pm - 7:30 pm		TUD BIG BAND Concert The TUD Big Band is a student orchestra specializing in big band jazz. From swing to rock to jazz to blues, from loud to soft, brisk to contemplative, fiery to dreamy - as long as it's groovy, we'll play it.
8:00 pm - 9:00 pm		DIE BÜHNE Die Haifänger - an open-air play Perfect weather, far and wide not a cloud in the sky, mackerel and sand smelt fish swimming about! It could have been a fantastic weekend for the beach resort of Amity - but a shark killed a swimmer in the middle of the night, sending the city into pandemonium. "Die Haifänger" ("The Shark Catchers"), is a tragicomedy loosely based on Jaws that seeks to examine how the public and the media address invisible, biological dangers. An evening of edge-of-your-seat entertainment mixed with introspection about extinction and survival.
9:15 pm - 10:00 pm		KINO IM KASTEN Silent film show: Sound of Silence In 1930, sound films were sometimes met with a cry of disdain. "How are musicians supposed to bring home the bacon?" And so, we have graciously hired an (almost) penniless pianist to provide musical accompaniment to silent films for your entertainment. Kino im Kasten presents a not-so-silent silent film for all the film buffs out there and those who would like to become one.
10:00 pm - 12:00 am		CAMPUSRADIO Live music and time to dance In line with Campusradio's tradition, the stage at the Weberplatz invites all to join in with an upbeat mood and dance music and will host a live performance of the Dresden punk rock band Focus.
5:00 pm - 6:00 pm	WEB Weberplatz south wing of the building	DIE BÜHNE Improvisational theater workshop In this workshop, participants will get a feel for improvisational theater. With just a little help and some basic techniques, they will use simple games to develop full stories. There is no script, no novel to base your work on - just the actors, the empty stage and a few prompts from which an improvised story will be played out.
6:00 pm - 7:00 pm		DIE BÜHNE "Schachvergiftung" - open rehearsal This play deals with the metaphorical game of chess between mania and self-assertion, based on the processing of trauma depicted in Stefan Zweig's novella "The Royal Game" (1942) and the Netflix miniseries "The Queen's Gambit" (2020). How does the cliché of genius and madness change in the presence of artificial intelligence? And what does mental health mean for strategic thinking? "Schachvergiftung" ("Chess poisoning") is a multimedia performance with propped and physical worlds of chess, featuring digital and analog players.
7:00 pm - 8:00 pm		KINO IM KASTEN Film workshop Kino im Kasten invites visitors to dive into the wide world of cinema. We will address the question: How does a film actually end up on the screen? From program planning to licensing and finding a film to the actual presentation, we will offer you an insight into our volunteer cinema club and the technology we use. This event is geared toward anyone who loves films and going to the movies. The workshop will take place right at the Kino im Kasten cinema on August-Bebel-Straße.

It also sees to the provision of meeting spaces and venues and raises public awareness of student culture. With the Weberplatz stage, the Culture Office is putting all of its experience and organizational energy into the Campus Culture Festival.

Members of Dresden's student clubs will venture out of their basements and bars to supply you with refreshments. In addition to beer, wine and non-alcoholic beverages, they will also prepare some mixed drinks and cocktails. The clubs will also prepare a selection of grilled meats and vegetarian alternatives. Thanks to the voluntary dedication of all their members, this will all be available at the student rates you're used to. Don't forget to visit the student clubs outside of the Campus Culture Festival, as they host regular cultural events within arm's reach!
