Science Slam and discussion

Both options are possible²

¹ This can be a seminar paper or thesis, an internship report or another student research project in German or English

² In order to achieve a balance with regard to the type of contribution, please check this box if you do not yet have a preference for a particular format. At the same time, this flexibility increases the chance of participating in StuFoExpo 2025.

Abstract of the research

(Please briefly describe your project: What was the initial situation and original goal? What went differently than planned? What did you learn from it? What would you change in hindsight, and how could it continue?)

Please note: The abstract should be understandable for non-specialists.

The maximum length is 1,500 characters.

I hereby confirm that I have read and understood the data protection information and that all relevant questions have been clarified.

Date, signature (digital or analog)

Please send your application to stufoexpo@mailbox.tu-dresden.de by September 12, 2025. Applications received after the deadline can no longer be considered. If you have any questions, please write an e-mail or contact Anne Jaschan from the Center for Interdisciplinary Learning and Teaching: +49 351 463-41169.

Data protection declaration for the processing of personal data as part of Fail Better @ StuFoExpo 2025

For what purpose will personal data be processed?

Personal data will be processed in order to present the event on various platforms as part of TU Dresden's public relations work. In addition, the data processing serves the registration, the implementation and the follow-up work for the event.

Who is responsible for data processing and to whom can data subjects turn?

TU Dresden
Center for Interdisciplinary Learning and Teaching (ZiLL)
01062 Dresden

What is the legal basis for the processing of personal data?

The legal basis for the processing of personal data is your voluntary and informed consent in accordance with Art. 6 para. 1 subpara. 1 letter a GDPR.

What personal data will be processed?

First and last name; Title; Professional position and job (e.g. name of institute or chair); Degree program; Home address; Email address; External features (e.g. face) through image recording; Features of the voice through sound recordings; Information on the contribution

How will the personal data be processed?

First and last name, title, professional position, job, degree program, information about your contribution to StuFoExpo 2025 (e.g. in the form of your contribution or abstract) as well as characteristics of your appearance and voice will be published with your consent on the website, on the Videocampus Sachsen (<https://videocampus.sachsen.de/>), on the video portal YouTube (<https://www.youtube.com/>) and Open Access (CC BY 4.0: Creative Commons Attribution 4.0) via Qucosa.

The email address you provided will be stored in order to have the possibility to request participants to take over a moderation or jury activity in future years. Personal data will be deleted 5 years after collection. The data is stored on TU Dresden servers until it is deleted.

What general rights do data subjects have?

To claim your rights, it is sufficient that you notify Ms. Anne Jaschan (see above) in writing (letter or email). However, the rights can only be exercised if the processed data allows for the identification of a natural person. It is a known fact that both the image or sound recordings and other project documents can be accessed worldwide when published on the internet and can be found in particular by search engines, that further use and/or modification by third parties cannot be ruled out and that under certain circumstances your rights (see below) may not be fully guaranteed. This relates in particular to deletion.

1) Voluntariness and revocation according to Art. 7 para. 3 GDPR

The submission of personal data is voluntary. Consent to the processing of personal data may be revoked at any time pursuant to Art. 7 para. 3 GDPR. The personal data of the person in question will no longer be processed.

2) Right of access to personal data (Art. 15 GDPR)

Data subjects have the right to obtain information on the data processed concerning them, as well as possible recipients of such data, at any time. You are entitled to a reply within one month after the responsible party receives the request for information.

3) Right to rectification, erasure and restriction (Art. 16 - 18 GDPR)

Data subjects may at request at any time that TU Dresden rectifies or erases their personal data or restricts its processing.

4) Right to data portability (Art. 20 GDPR)

Data subjects may request that the responsible party send them their personal data in a machine-readable format. Alternatively, they can request the direct transfer of their personal data to a different responsible party, insofar as this is possible.

5) Right to lodge a complaint (Art. 77 GDPR)

Data subjects can at any time contact TU Dresden's Data Protection Officer and, in the case of a complaint pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, the responsible supervisory authority for data protection. The responsible supervisory authority is:

The Saxon Data Protection
Officer Dr. Juliane Hundert

Declaration of consent for the processing of personal data as well as the use of information of your contributions in the scope of StuFoExpo 2025

By checking the boxes below and signing below, I voluntarily consent

- (1) that my personal data (esp. first and last name as well as email address) may be used for registration and implementation of StuFoExpo 2025 as well as for later contact possibilities.
- (2) that my first and last name, title, professional position, place of work, degree program and information about my contribution as well as the abstract at StuFoExpo 2025 will be published on the homepage, on the videoportal YouTube and on the Videocampus Saxony.
- (3) that my contributions to the StuFoExpo 2025 in the form of video recordings and photographic material may be recorded during the event.
- (4) that my poster contributions made for StuFoExpo 2025 as well as the video recordings of my pitch or science slam may be published on the homepage, on the videoportal YouTube and on the Videocampus Saxony.

Right of revocation

The signatory has the right to revoke this consent at any time with effect for the future without stating a reason. All you need to do is send an email to stufoexpo@mailbox.tu-dresden.de . The revocation shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing that took place on the basis of the consent until the revocation.

Consequences of not signing

The signatory has the right not to agree to this consent form. Only the use of personal data for registration, implementation and subsequent contact options (1) is mandatory. Failure to consent will result in exclusion from the event. All publications (2-4) can be objected to at any time and will not result in exclusion from the event. In this case, please contact us directly.
